Help Yourself to Health by Charles - £3.99

This book was written some years ago, but we have found it in demand recently. It speaks of spiritual principles that we need to have working in our lives that enable us to live free from condemnation and at peace. It also gives us keys to combat stress which is such a common condition these days.

We have other books on our website - visit www.charlesandjoyce.com/pages/products and buy your books - sent post free.

A Look Back on the Year

Last December we travelled to Gboko, Nigeria to be with our friends at Peace House. We taught at the Ministry Refreshment Course and participated in the Retreat led by Gbile and Sade Akanni.

At the beginning of March, Joyce was privileged to go the Turkey and be one of the speakers at Arise 2103 which is a gathering of ladies from Central Asia. It was a time of release, healing and equipping for people living in very difficult circumstances. Later in the month, Charles spoke on Authority to the Teen Challenge School of Ministry. In spring and early summer we made several visits to Highway Christian Church at Marsh Gibbon taking seminars on the Saturday's and preaching at the Sunday services. This was primarily to support the church while their leaders Andy and Louise were away on sabbatical.

In August, we travelled to Frankfurt to Ichtys Church, where our son in law Jens had been the pastor, until the end of last year. We spoke at a Seminar on "How to live with a vital connection to God in our daily lives." We were also able to take some extra time to visit friends in the former East Germany, in particular David & Hedi Strauss. We had not seen David for twenty years, in earlier times he travelled with me extensively. We also saw Michael and Ulrike Schultze who lead a church in Menterode. In the days of the former DDR, we regularly ministered in their previous church in Magdeburg.

We have also ministered in Wells, Newport, Treorchy, Wrrington and at our home church Living Waters, Clevedon. We also meet once year with our trustees to pray and maintain vision and focus. Much of our ministry is unseen as we spend time with individuals and we also need time to visit with our large family. We are grandparents to 18, ranging from 3 to 22 and we desire to give them all quality time.
