

Books ~ Books ~ Books

Joyce's New Book – What do these stones mean? – has sold well, and the response coming back to us is most encouraging. Here is one of the emails we have received.

"I'm really enjoying your book Joyce. I've only read the first few chapters and am doing the study at the end of each one, as well as listening to you at each chapter I know I've emailed you before, but I am so enjoying Joyce's book and listening to your 'pods' especially one that included older children as we are in the Grandparent stage!!! God is good and your web page etc. gives hope to us parents of grown up kids as they show it's never too late!!!"

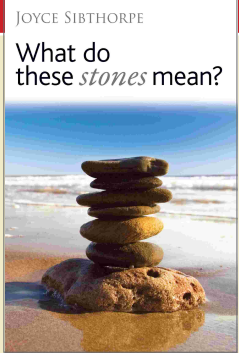

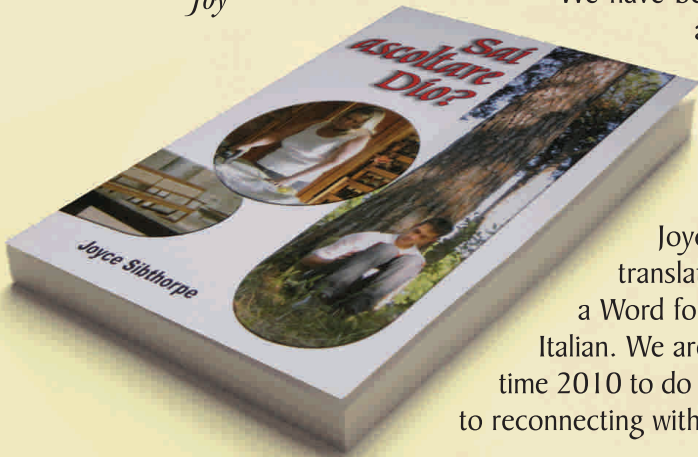

"I've had such fun doing the 'eggs' project as Joyce mentions in her book. I decided to give a go and although I haven't quite finished I have received bible verses and words from God for my children, their spouses, grandchildren, my husband and even me!!! It's great."

We have been encouraged by the sales of our books and Bible Plans via the website. The PayPal method is working well and we are beginning to reach a wider audience, which was one of our aims with the website.

Joyce's book – Can you hear God? has been translated into Italian, the second book – Is there a Word for the Lord? will shortly also be published in Italian. We are now planning to go to Italy around Easter time 2010 to do a speaking tour. We are also looking forward to reconnecting with many friends.

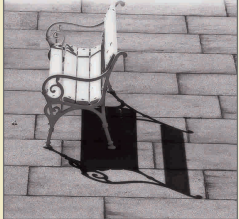

You can buy our books online or use the enclosed order form.
